The event is insured by the F.C.I. (www.federciclismo.it) and is also covered by a supplementary policy. Non-registered cyclists must not join the group, under penalty of expulsion. In the event of an accident they will be reported in accordance with the law.

The cyclist in an accident must report it to the institution to which he belongs to his or her company.

Participants who are not registered with any club must notify the Organization directly, sending a suitable medical report certifying the accident that occurred during the event.

General rules:

For anything not covered by these regulations, the general F.C.I. and U.C.I. provisions are in force.

The Organizing Committee declines any responsibility for itself and its collaborators, for accidents or damage to persons or property (including those left unattended), which may occur before, during and after the event or as a result of the same. It reserves the right to exclude athletes who will have incorrect behavior before, during and after the event.

Please note that for a correct and safe conduct of the competition, the data of the vehicles that should illegally follow the competitors and transit in the space forbidden to normal circulation, or in the space between the beginning and the end of the race, will be collected by of the inspectors of the organization and delivered to the jury and the competent police body, for any measures both sporting and infraction of the Highway Code.

Variations:

The organization reserves the right to arrange any changes to the route and the regulations at any time. The event website is the official information tool of the event.

Rules of conduct:

We appeal to the civic sense of the participants in order not to throw waste along the streets, but by placing it in the appropriate containers at the refreshment points identified by a beginning and an end refreshment and in the "eco zones" along the route.

Along the route there will be a "GREEN TEAM" that will monitor the correct behavior of the participants by reporting with videos, photos and official reports those who throw paper and waste on the ground in the various areas where this is prohibited. Violators will be "sanctioned according to the regulations, up to DISQUALIFICATION".

Disqualifications imposed by the F.C.I. during the year may lead to exclusion from the starting list at any time at the sole discretion of the organization.

Obligations for participants:

- The use of a rigid and approved helmet is mandatory
- Compliance with the Highway Code is mandatory
- It is mandatory to observe the regulations of the event and the directives of the tourist or cycling guides where present
- It is mandatory to prevent and not create dangerous situations
- It is mandatory to facilitate the overtaking of cars by leaving spaces for re-entry into the lane
- In the case of night routes, or poor visibility, or with tunnels, it is mandatory to have a front and rear light and wear high-visibility clothing

Failure to carry out:

If the race is cancelled and/or, in any case, not carried out for reasons not dependent and/or not attributable to the will of the organizers, including the revocation of the authorization to carry out by the competent Public Bodies, for any reason, the participant will have nothing to claim from the organizers, not even by way of reimbursement of the expenses incurred and those incurred by validating the signing of the registration form also as a waiver of any claim for compensation for damages and/or indemnity and/or any claim for reinstatement and/or satisfaction of any financial damage suffered and suffered.
